LEAD Agency has partnered with the Quapaw Tribe Domestic Violence Program to bring this historic display of The Monument Quilt to Oklahoma. The Monument Quilt is a crowd-sourced collection of thousands of stories of survivors of rape and abuse, alongside messages of love and support from allies in the movement to upset rape culture. By stitching our stories together, we are creating and demanding public space to heal.

The Monument Quilt is a platform to not only tell our stories, but work together to forever change how Americans respond to rape. We are building a new culture where survivors are publicly supported not publicly shamed.

The Quapaw, Oklahoma display of the quilt is part of FORCE: Upsetting Rape Culture's summer tour across the country. Visit the webpage themonumentquilt.org to learn more about the tour and how to get involved.
